

Travel Guide Uzbekistan

Home

Cities

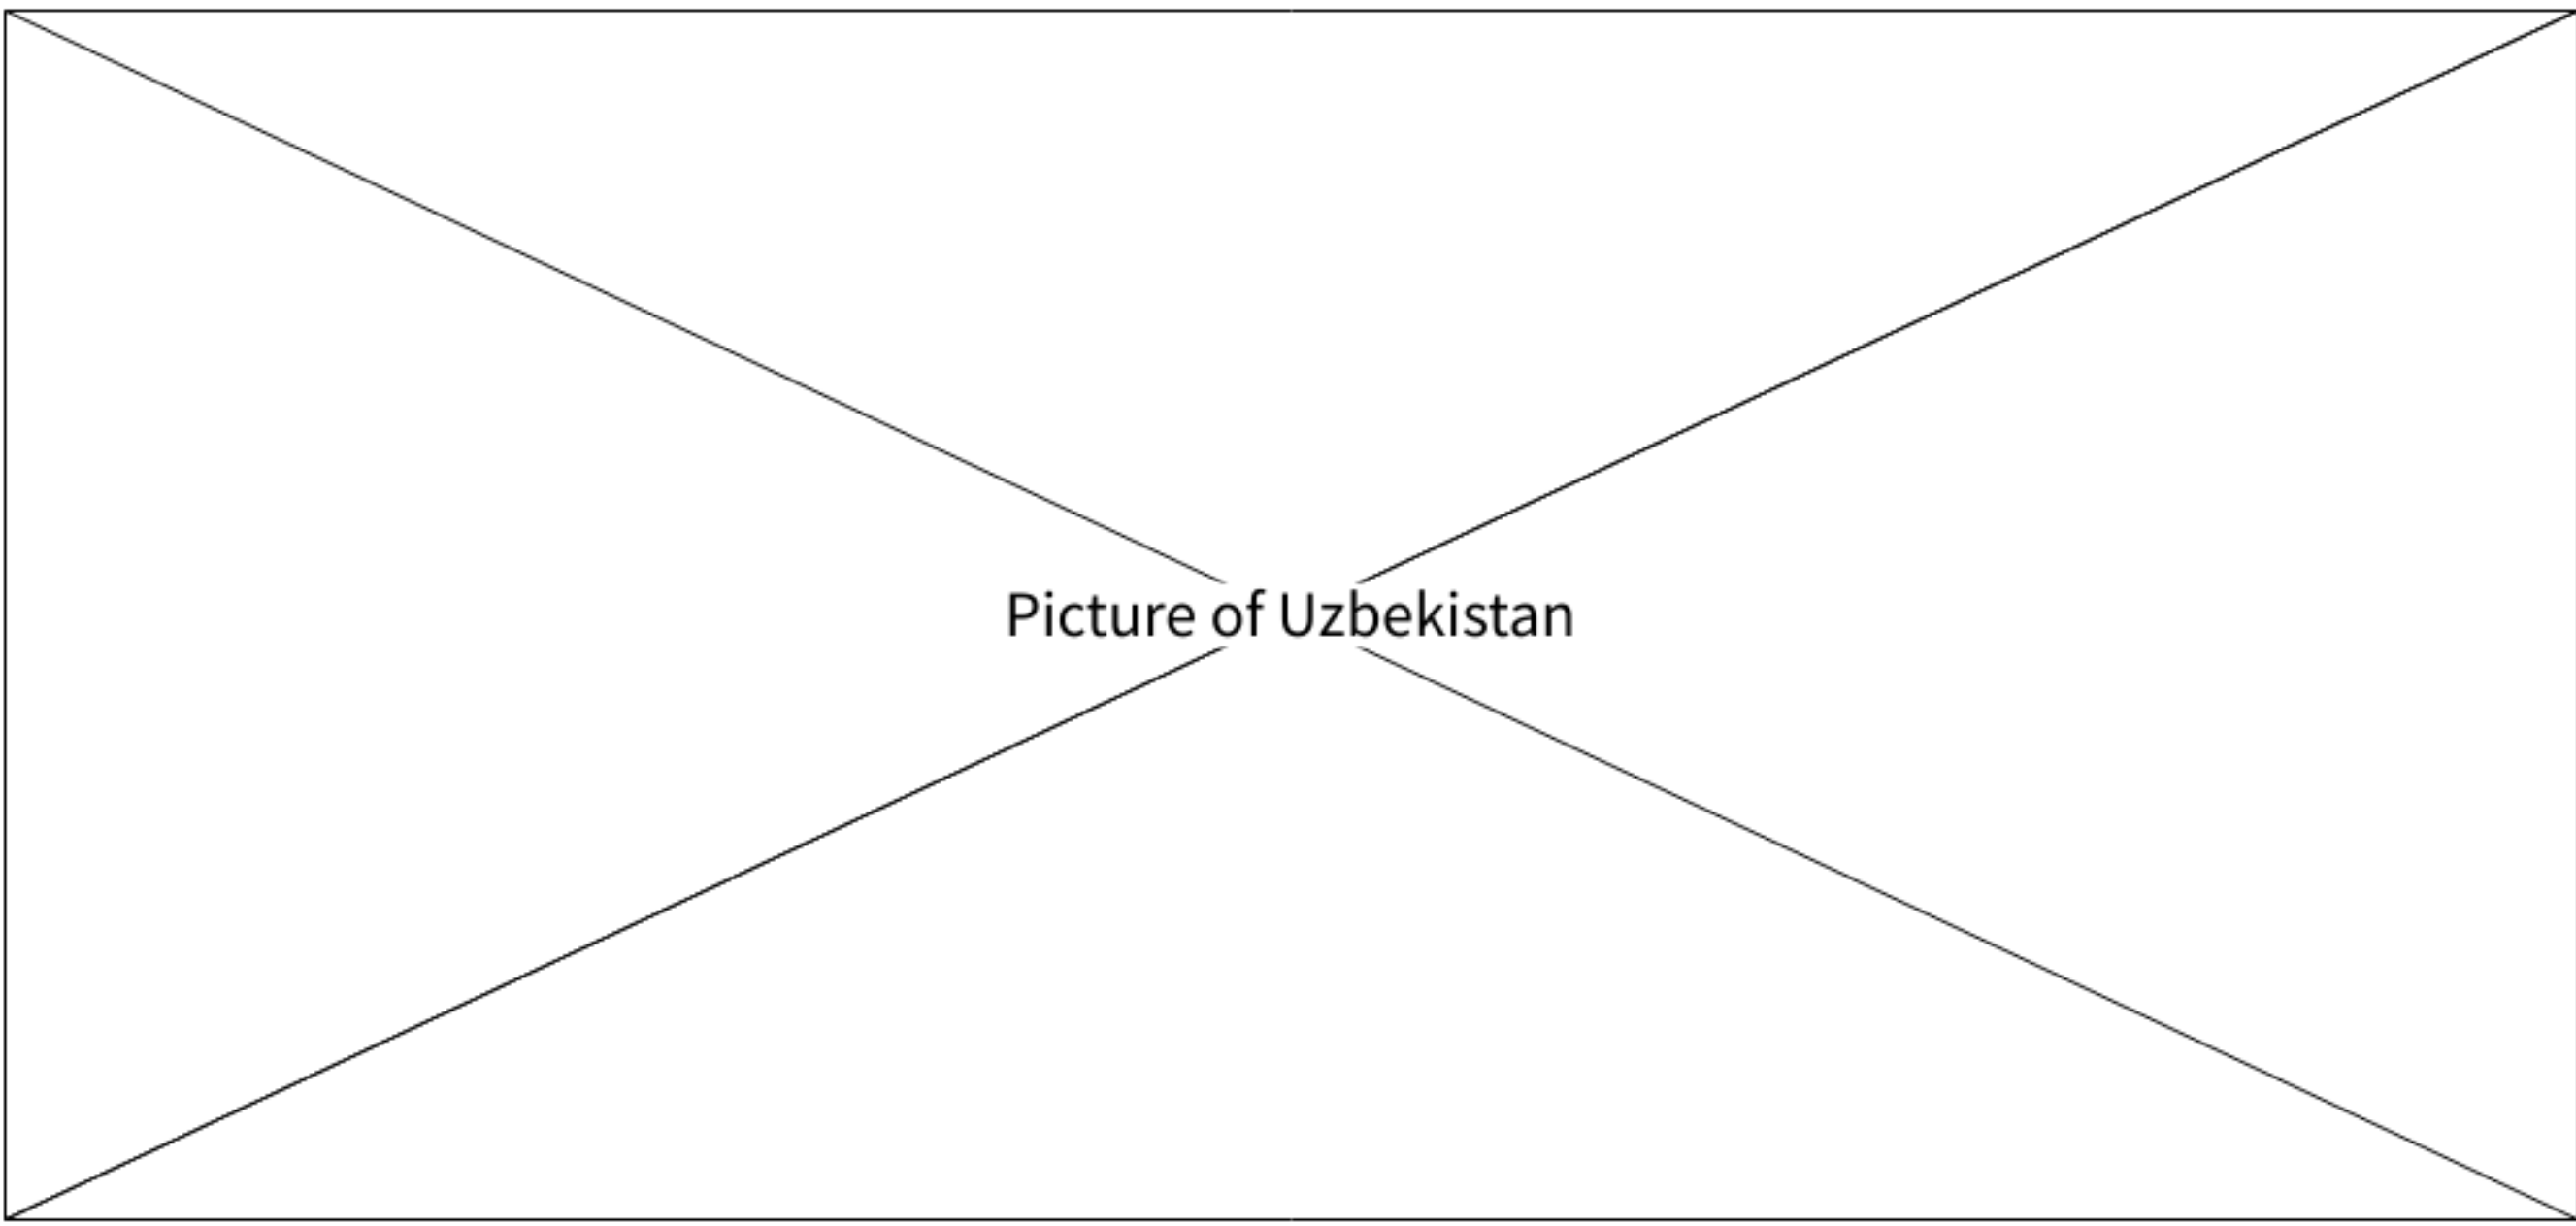

Nature

Architecture

Visit Form

Discover new Uzbekistan!

Uzbekistan is a mysterious country of the East, where the history of cities gathered in legends, where the sun shines all year round and this reflects the unique nature and beautiful hearts of people.

Welcome to the country of magnificent architecture and ancient traditions preserved a unique heritage. Everyone who comes to this blessed land is welcome here! If you have visited Uzbekistan once, be sure, you will want to return back here again.

Facts about Uzbekistan

Located in the heart of the Central Asia, the Republic of Uzbekistan is famous for its numerous architectural monuments, incredible natural landscapes, magnificent palaces, and ruins of fortresses of past civilizations, outstanding cultural events, gastronomic delights and famous craft workshops. From the first visit, our country evokes extraordinary feelings that prompt us to come here repeatedly.

The Republic of Uzbekistan includes 12 regions and the autonomous Republic of Karakalpakstan.

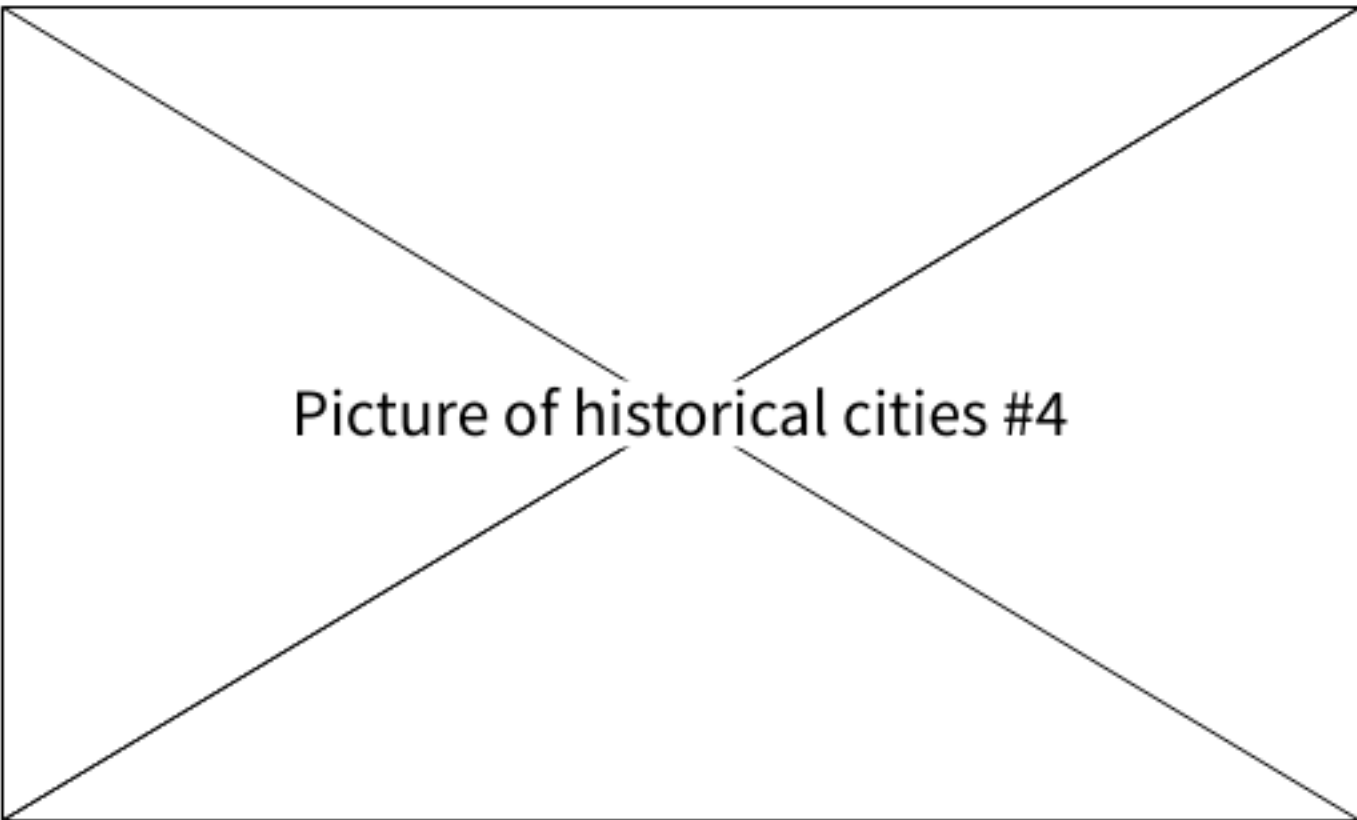

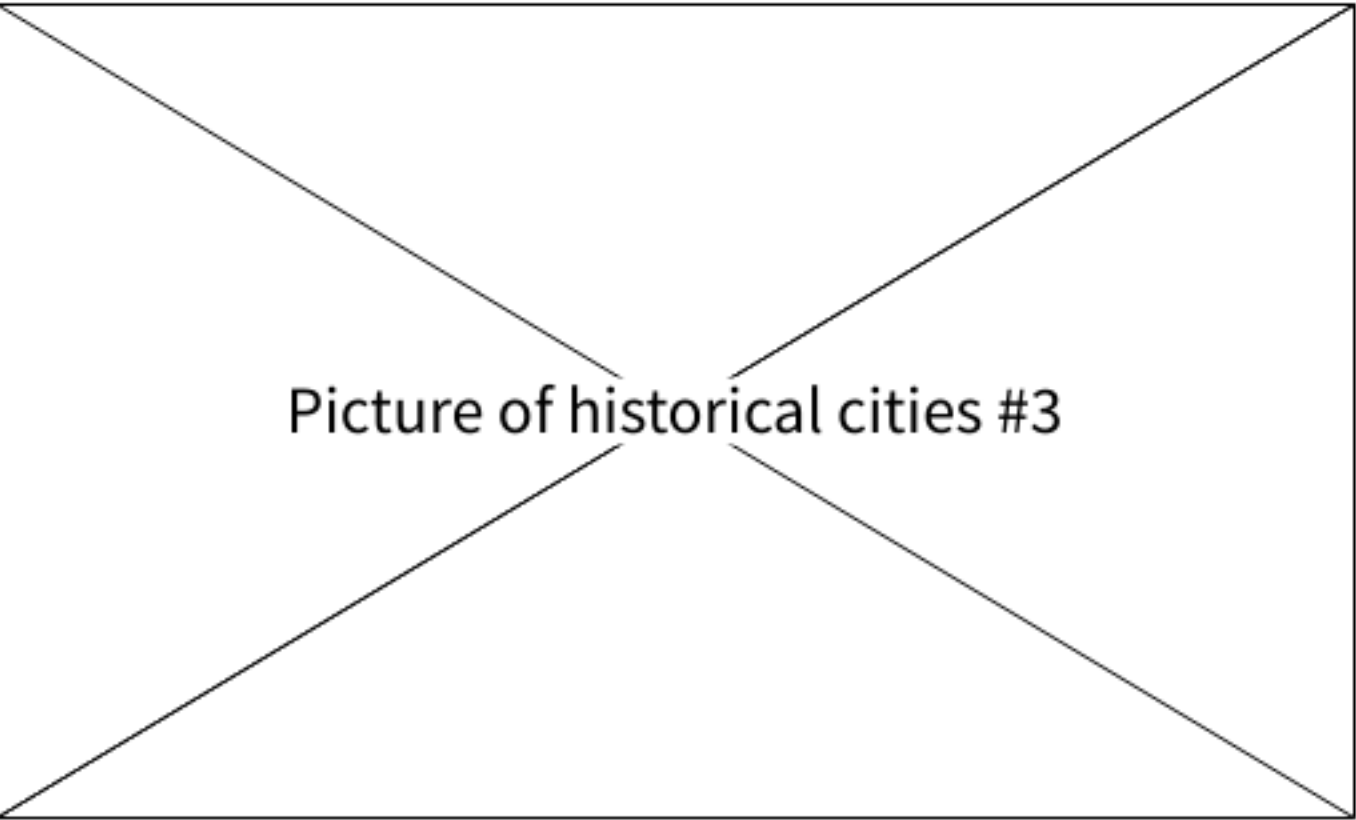

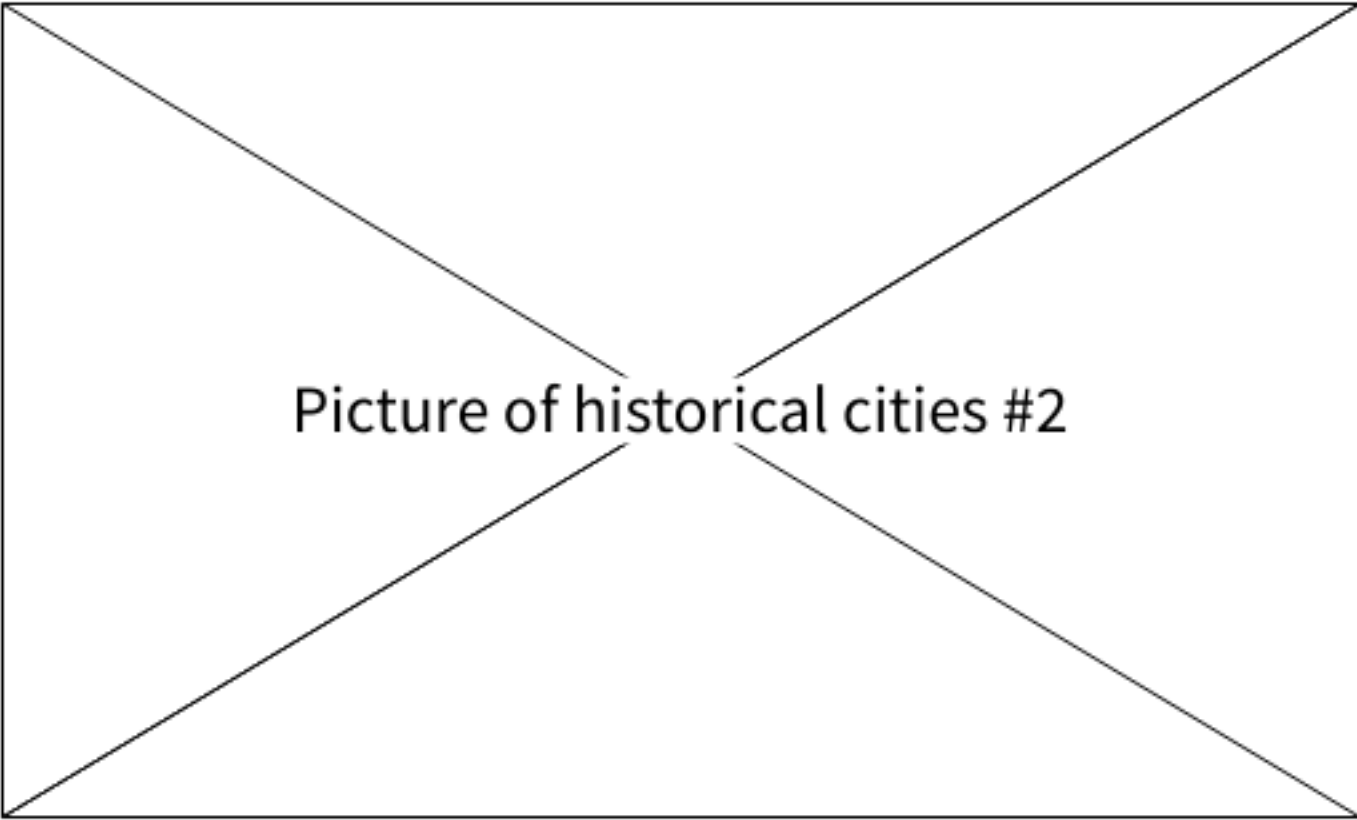

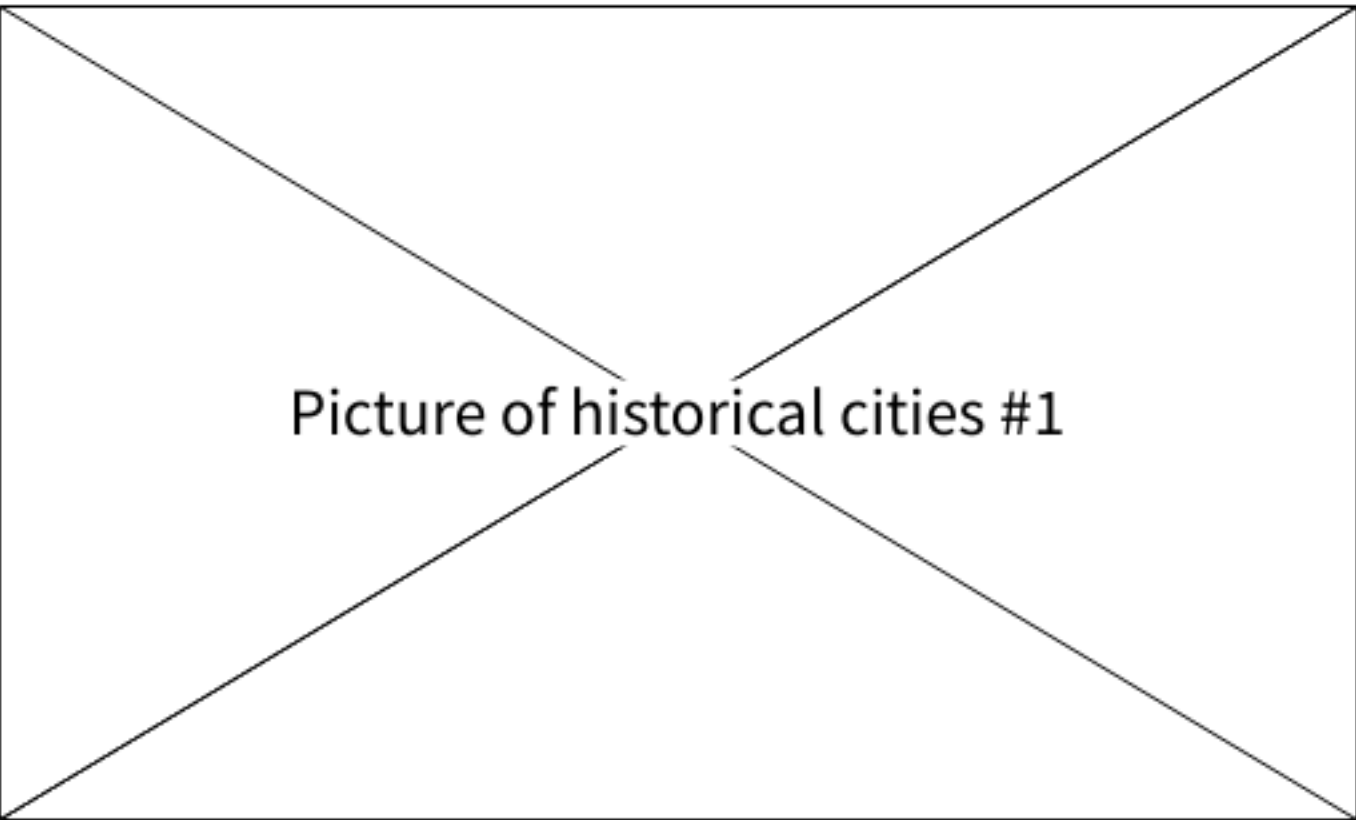

Each corner of Uzbekistan attracts with its features. In Tashkent, you can take a walk in the most beautiful metro in the world or see the most ancient manuscript – the Koran of Usman. In the historical cities included in the UNESCO Cultural Heritage List – Samarkand, Bukhara, Shakhrisabz and Khiva, you can visit the most ancient architectural monuments that have preserved echoes of past eras. In the southernmost part of the country – Surkhandarya, you can travel through mountain gorges or see the ruins of the ancient cities near Termez.

Depending on the time of year, you can go skiing in the foothills of the Tien Shan or climb the highest point of Big Chimgan.

Year	Tourism Revenue (million USD)	GDP (billion USD)	Tourism Revenue as a % of total GDP
2021	679	69.6	0.98
2020	395	60.22	0.66
2019	1,679	60.28	2.79
2018	1,314	52.87	2.49
2017	835	62.08	1.35

Historical Cities of Uzbekistan

In this category, we will introduce you to such ancient cities of Uzbekistan as Tashkent, Samarkand, Bukhara, Khiva, Shakhrisabz. The brilliant cities of our country, which were once part of the Great Silk road, with more than one thousand years history. And even in the head does not fit, how such historical giants becoming living legends, continue their way in the modern world. Here you will learn about their dizzying history, architectural monuments of rare beauty, delicious national cuisine, and mysterious places in each city. In addition, you can make virtual trips, buy souvenirs and gifts online, and enjoy all the most interesting things in the photo gallery.

Nature

Picture of nature in Uzbekistan

Do you want to change the atmosphere, enjoy the beautiful nature, unique flora and fauna, sunbathe on the coast of crystal lakes and noisy rivers and reach perhaps the highest point on the planet? Now it is possible. Come to Uzbekistan! The unique nature of this ancient country will open for you all the colors of natural and pristine beauty. Uzbekistan has no access to the sea and makes up for this with a huge number of the world’s most beautiful lakes, natural and artificial reservoirs and large rivers that cover the entire Central Asia.

Most of the territory of Uzbekistan is occupied by plains. One of the largest is the Turan plain. The two major deserts of Kyzylkum and Karakum stretch for several hundred kilometers across the country up to the foot of the Tien Shan. The desert is especially beautiful in spring. Strong winds drive sand-dunes,

Video of nature in Uzbekistan

Architecture

HomeCitiesNatureArchitectureVisit Form

The most famous cities with masterpieces of architectural architecture – Samarkand, Bukhara, Khiva, Shakhrisabz, Termez and Kokand attract art lovers from all over the world.

Their history begins with the time of Alexander the Great and combines all the elements of different architectural styles of the ancient East.

Some monuments found in various regions of Uzbekistan date back to the Stone and Bronze ages.

The heyday of architectural creativity here falls on the Middle ages, when Uzbekistan was the centre of the Great Silk Road. Once having visited Uzbekistan, you will definitely want to return.

Picture of architecture in Uzbekistan

Visit Form

Home

Cities

Nature

Architecture

Visit Form

Name

Surname

Citizenship

Type of travel

☒ Short-term travel ☐ Long-term travel

Visa type for you

☐ Visa-Free ☒ E-Visa

What encouraged you to visit Uzbekistan ?

☐ I have read and accept the Privacy statement

Submit

Reset data